

Sixth meeting of the IPBES task force on capacity-building

Paris, France, 24 September 2018

24 September 2018, UNESCO Headquarters, Paris

DRAFT – Updated 19.09.2018

Objectives

- Further develop IPBES capacity-building activities for continued implementation of the rolling plan in 2018-2019.
- Support further development of the IPBES capacity-building function for the future work programme of IPBES.

Outputs of the task force meeting

- An overview of suggested capacity-building activities to be implemented under the capacity-building rolling plan in 2018-2019.
- Recommendations for further development of the IPBES capacity-building function for the future work programme of IPBES.

Context

The sixth meeting of the task force on capacity-building will be held back-to-back with the 3rd meeting of IPBES capacity-building forum (25-26 Sept) and with a one-day meeting to advance on the work of the established task groups 3-5 (27 Sept). In addition, the seventh meeting of the task force on indigenous and local knowledge and an indigenous peoples' consultation will take place in conjunction with these capacity-building meetings. The meetings will all take place 24-28 September, at UNESCO headquarters in Paris.

The aim of having all these meetings combined is to explore the links between capacity-building and I indigenous and local knowledge and discuss how to better facilitate and support the integration of indigenous and local knowledge in the work on capacity-building.

Supporting information for the task force meeting

The mandate for the work on capacity-building under IPBES has been determined by the IPBES Plenary and is outlined in the three texts listed below:

- Objective 1 of IPBES's first work programme, deliverables 1(a) and 1(b);
- Terms of reference for the IPBES task force on capacity-building; and
- Priority capacity-building needs approved by the Plenary at its third session.

In response to requests by the Plenary, to further prioritise the identified capacity-building needs and develop an approach for the work on capacity-building, the task force has developed the IPBES capacity-building rolling plan.
